A BAPTIST CATECHISM

Question 54: What are we especially taught by these words, "before me," in the first commandment?

Answer: These words "before me," in the first commandment teach us that God, who sees all things, takes notice of, and is much displeased with the sin of having any other God.

Psalm 44:20-21

If we had forgotten the name of our God,
Or stretched out our hands to a strange god,
Would not God search this out?

For He knows the secrets of the heart.

Scripture: Deuteronomy 30:17, 18; Psalm 44:20-21; 90:8.

The Process of Christian Growth

The Warning Against Childish Immaturity 3:1-4

The Wisdom of Spiritual thinking

The Immaturity of Fleshly thinking

as infants - self-centered and sensual

jealousy & strife

fed with milk - a diet which misses the breadth of wisdom

The Work of God-directed Ministry 3:5-17

God gives the assignments 5

Who directs our mission?

Working together in the Field 6-9

Ministry requires a broad scope of work.

Ministry requires a Divine source of growth.

Ministry requires a clear understanding of mission.

We work in God's field. We build upon Christ's work.

Building together on the Foundation 9-15

Ministry requires skilled building of the foundation.

oversight and coordination - like an architect.

by God's grace

Ministry is tested by God's standards.

Are we building something that will last?

Are we building something beautiful?

Dwelling together in the Temple 16-17

Ministry is a sacred process of building the church.

Conclusion

How am I building up the temple?
